

Keystone School District is proud of the accomplishments of Keystone students both in the school setting and in activities outside of the school day. Due to the large numbers of events, acknowledgement on the website is limited to school-related activities only. This procedure is implemented in fairness to all students and to avoid oversight of significant student accomplishments that are not made aware to high school personnel.